Part 3 Reading

Read the text about a famous British painting and for questions 22 to 26, choose the correct answer (maximum – 10 points).

The “Mrs. Sarah Siddons” by Gainsborough has the distinction of being not only a remarkable work of art, but a unique interpretation of a unique personality. It is not only one of the artist’s finest portraits, but also one of the best of the many likenesses of the great tragic actress, who sat to most of the celebrated masters of her day. It was painted in 1783— 1785, when the queen of the tragic drama was in her twenty-ninth year and at the zenith of her fame.

An enthusiastic admirer who saw it in the Manchester exhibition of 1857 wrote as follows: “The great tragic actress, who interpreted the passions with such energy and such feeling, and who felt them so strongly herself, is better portrayed in this simple half-length in her day dress, than in allegorical portraits as the Tragic Muse or in character parts. This portrait is so original, so individual, as a poetic expression of character, as a deliberate selection of pose, as bold colour and free handling, that it is like the work of no other painter”.

22. Mrs. Sarah Siddons was...

- A. a model
- B. an actress
- C. an artist

23. The portrait was painted when Mrs. Siddons ...

- A. experienced tragic events
- B. played her worst role
- C. was on the peak of her popularity

24. Mrs. Siddons was famous for...

- A. her energetic and passionate acting
- B. her comedy talent
- C. her brilliant voice

25. Gainsborough's style is characterized by...

- A. poetic expression
- B. good colouring
- C. the combination of master execution and originality

26. The "Mrs. Sarah Siddons" is an outstanding work because...
