ANSWER SHEET

Unconditional love for Hematoma

Misspelled

I: Thank you so much for being here with me today. I would like to start with your recent return home after living several years abroad. What was it like there?
 JB: Thank you for having me the last 2 years. I spent a lot of time in the West coast of India, with both the Indian and foreign surroundings. It certainly was a eye-opening experience. I had a lot of fun and I learned a lot from the natives who would teach me how to live.
 I: Sounds exciting. How can you elaborate a bit more on how you came up with the idea for your book?
 JB: Sure. After my first year in India, I realized how much I missed my own hometown. So I decided to dedicate my coming-up book to it, in order to each my love for paper.
 I: So inspiring. Switching gears to ~~the~~ about its contents, can you share a little insight with us?
 JB: Of course! The most ~~interesting~~ <sup>obscure</sup> fact in my opinion is about the ~~name~~ and my hometown. I just realized that it includes ~~elements~~ of different cultures. It also was found by several countries throughout its history. I'm going to say I can reveal the release date?
 JB: Yes! It's October 18th 2024.
 I: Describe the changes that you predicted in your hometown after your return, that ~~have~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~planning to include in the book~~ <sup>planning to include in the book</sup>.
 JB: Many cycle lanes ~~are~~ <sup>have</sup> ~~planned in the parks~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~the public transportation~~ <sup>become</sup> faster and more modern.
 I: That was very insightful. Thank you for your answers.
 JB: Sure.
