The Grand Town Festival.

Introduction.

We would like to thank the student council for giving us the opportunity to organize this festival. This paper will act as a proposal of things we want to do at the festival. The festival will consist of three events: "the past", "the present", "the future". They will all take place on three separate days.

The events and their connections.

On the first day, the event called "the past" will take place. It will be about the history and culture of our town, our scientific achievements and inventions. There will also be folk songs at the event.

On the second day, the event called "the present" will take place. It will be about how the past impacted our town in the present and the evolution of our culture. There will be great emphasis on showing the connection between past and present.

On the third day, the event called "the future" will take place. We will invite aspiring companies of our town, who we think will impact our future the most. ~~The event~~ This way, we will show how our work in present can greatly impact the future.

Benefits.

It will be really beneficial for citizens to come to the festival. They will have a chance to expand their knowledge of town's history. They will also learn more about how the town operates and what companies work here.

Conclusion

The Grant Town Festival will be a great festival with many things citizens could learn. They will also have good benefits by coming to the festival. It will also allow for town's companies to expand their reach by advertising on the festival, which is why I think you should accept this proposal.
